Book Guide for: Bunny Cakes

Author: Rosemary Wells

When you start a new book make sure you tell your child the name of the book and the name of the author and illustrator. In this case, Rosemary Wells is both the author and illustrator. This book is about Max and Ruby. Your child may already know these characters since they have had their own show on PBS Kids. You should also consider doing a “picture walk” through the book with your child. Starting with the title page, talk with your child about each page: naming items on the page or talking about what is happening on each page. As you get into the story, ask your child to guess what Max might drop next. Read and enjoy the book together.

After reading the story, ask your child some of these questions:

What did Max use to make his cake? (make a list and compare with the book)

What did Ruby use to make her cake? (also make a list and compare)

Why could Max not go into the kitchen?

What was he trying to write on the shopping list?

Which cake did Grandma like?

There are different Max and Ruby books which you can get at your local library. Besides Max and Ruby, Rosemary Wells has some other books you might enjoy. Ask your librarian to help you check the books you like.
